AGM, Friday 23 February 2018 at 7.30pm (doors open 7.00pm), Memorial Hall

I hope you are able to join us for the dinner after the AGM, our speaker will be Dr Johnny Marshall OBE. He will talk to us not only from his familiar position as a local GP but also because in the recent past he has been a key figurehead in the NHS organisation having been the Chair of the National Association of Primary Care. For four years until the end of 2016 he was the Group Director of Policy at the NHS Confederation.

Entry to the AGM is free but tickets for the dinner are £17.50 per head. As usual wine, beer and soft drinks will be available for purchase in the Hall.

Our food will be prepared by Beverley Edwards of 'Posh Nosh' and will be a choice of Home-Made Pork and Cider Pie, Homely Chicken Casserole, Vegetarian Casserole, with a selection of Fresh Vegetables and New Potatoes. Each table will have a Cheese Board and Fresh Butter Platter.

Please complete the booking form below and send it to me together with your payment. I will acknowledge receipt but to reduce administration and cost, tickets will not be issued. Should we have more applications than we have places a waiting list will be established. If, after you have booked, you find you are unable to attend please let me know so that your place can be offered to a member on the waiting list.

Tables will be set for eight people. Should you wish to have a whole table reserved for you, please advise the names of the 8 on the reverse of the booking form. In addition, and as an experiment, we will endeavour to reserve places together for parties of four.

We hope again to have one or two "Introduction Tables" hosted by Committee members, which new members or those attending on their own may wish to join. If you wish to sit on one of these please indicate on the booking form.

On the evening please enter the hall through the main double doors. We look forward to seeing you on 23 February.
